

TO THE DEATH COMEDY SPORTZ

By: Dominique Riutort

On none other than April Fool's Day 2010, the Valencia High School Comedy Sportz team competed in their final Comedy Sportz match against our very own teachers. Representing the students we had team captain Davey Linam, Dillon Fontes (playing in the first round), Samantha Green (playing in the second round), Keanu Silva and Michael Garcia. And representing the teachers we had team captain, and our very own, Ms. Rachel Schiff, Mrs. Grace Stanton, Mrs. Tara Filowitz, and Mr. Ryan Reich. The two teams played a match that was to the death... Not really. But it was a lot of fun. A big thanks to the referee for the night, Cassy Hinger. It was her first time as a referee for an actual Comedy Sportz match. The crowd was loud and there was a lot of audience participation. However, Cassy Hinger did an excellent job handling it. In the end, the students represented and were able to defeat the teachers. Final score: Students-win, teachers-lose, audience-negative two. Be sure to come to watch next year's matches.

A CLASH AT THE MOVIES

Clash of the Titans is a Greek mythology film that tells the tale of Perseus who is a demigod, the son of Zeus-god of the gods. Perseus, played by Sam Worthington (also seen star in Avatar), is on a quest to defeat Hades-god of the underworld, played by Ralph Fiennes (also seen in The Reader), to avenge his deceased, adoptive family after they were caught in the middle of a battle between mankind and the gods. Zeus is approached by his brother Hades with a "strategy" to get man's worship back to Zeus; in truth, Hades is scheming to weaken all other gods so he is the remaining one to reign the earth and the heavens. In order for Perseus to weaken Hades he must confront his deadliest creation called the Kraken, a sea monster like no other. Victory is Perseus' when he regains his father's power back. In return, Zeus makes sure his son is set on earth and is rewarded in a fashionable manner.

Clash of the Titans is doing well in the box office, claiming $61.4 million on the opening weekend. It has since made over $110 million in total revenue; pretty well for another fantasy, action movie. This film has good scenes and grasps audience's attention but at times viewers could daze off. Several scenes are fairly dry when it came to showing pain and emotion in drastic times; perhaps it was just the dialogue-not the actors fault. Not to deny other scenes that are likable such as a flirty scene between Perseus and his love interest, another demigod, when she prepares him to face Medusa. The Kraken being introduced into the picture is another very captivating scene when they dramatically lag to show the creature's face and its' outrageous size, (this creature could literally swallow an entire city). Overall it has gotten decent reviews and all seem to state the same "it's not memorable"-Stacy Normand, The Free Press Online. Other viewers disagree and state that Clash of the Titans is the blockbuster to see this spring. Clash of the Titans is a good movie, and that's all that can be said.

The Valencia Tiger Regiment will impress and dazzle audiences as they perform at this year's Tiger Jam, which is tomorrow tonight. This event is a showcase presenting our wonderful Jazz I and II groups, the talented winter colorguard, the skilled winter drumline, the enjoyable concert band as well as the one and only symphonic band. With their outstanding records, our Tiger Regiment is well-known as a musically advanced group and we are proud to have them contribute to our school's reputation.

Winning awards and titles that reflect their overall success and triumph in the competitive music field, the Regiment continues to work extremely hard and dedicate themselves 110% to the art. Even though their skills have improved significantly, our tigers keep working hard in order to continue to add to Valencia's pride, tradition and excellence. As each group draws out the audience's applause, the crowd will be both entertained as well as impressed in seeing the amount of rare talent and full dedication it takes to be part of the Tiger Regiment.

"Tiger jam is a good opportunity for the programs within the Tiger Regiment to showcase their talents and hard work to their parents, community and alumni," says assistant band director Pete Perez who has supported the Regiment with all his heart. The program is open to the public and to anyone who wants to be part of this musical Tiger tradition. This event has been going on for the past ten years and has become a great musical opportunity for the Tiger Regiment's musicians and athletes to show what they've been working on as well as raise money for their extensive program. There will be twelve different gift baskets raffled at the event each consisting of many different prizes pertaining to different exciting themes.

For example a movie-themed basket may be raffled off, which could contain things like popcorn, movie tickets or candy. These prizes are not only incentives to come, but they will benefit the Tiger Regiment. The funds from the baskets will go toward funding the needs of all the participants in this event.

The Tiger Regiment has prepared and delivered their performances successfully at Tiger Jam consecutively for the past ten years. They are sure to impress once again as they hit each note, catch each flag and strike each drum. So come and support our Tiger Regiment tomorrow night in the new gym starting at 7PM, the night is sure to be an exciting musical showcase in our Tiger history. Not only will you be supporting the group, but showing your tiger pride. We'll see you there!
